

Recently I've been asking all my patients about their diet. Can we have a chat about yours?

Have you thought about how your diet affects your current illness?

We haven't spoken about your diet in a while. Is this something that you have thought about changing or improving?

Have you thought about how your diet might affect your wellbeing?